

6.15. Workers Compensation. Regular employees who are injured on the job, are unable to work, and file for Worker's Compensation may use accumulated paid time off (if eligible) while the claim is being processed. Pool employees may use accrued sick leave. Upon receiving payment from the Worker's Compensation carrier, the employee may sign the check over to the District, and any paid time off used by the employee will be reinstated to the employee's account on a pro-rated basis. Eligible employees may use paid time off to supplement their time loss payments up to the equivalent of their usual hours or salary. Pool employees may use accrued sick leave.
